TERMS AND CONDITIONS

By approving this artwork proof, you acknowledge and agree to the following terms and conditions:

Accuracy of Information:

You have thoroughly reviewed and confirmed that all text & numbers, spelling, grammar & punctuation, images, graphics, colors, dimensions, content, and placement/general layout are correct and meet your requirements.

Responsibility for Errors:

Once this proof is approved, Fastsigns of Arvada is not responsible for any errors or omissions that were not identified and corrected by you during the proofing process. This includes, but is not limited to, typographical errors, incorrect graphics, or inaccurate dimensions.

Color Disclaimer:

Colors on the proof may appear different from the final printed product due to variations in screen displays and printing processes. While we strive to represent colors as accurately as possible, slight variations may occur and are considered acceptable within industry standards. If color accuracy is crucial then a physical color sample is recommended and can be provided at an additional cost. This would add additional time to the project timeline.

Production Schedule:

Approval of this artwork proof triggers the beginning of the production process. Any delays in approving this proof will result in corresponding delays in the production timeline. Material will not be ordered until final approval of this artwork is received. Please ensure timely review and approval to meet your requested deadlines.

Customization and Alterations:

Once approved, no further changes can be made to the artwork without incurring additional charges and extending the production timeline. Ensure all desired modifications are made before final approval. Verbal changes and approval will not be accepted.

Intellectual Property Rights:

By approving this artwork proof, you confirm that Fastsigns of Arvada has the right to use all logos, trademarks, images, and other content included in the artwork. You also agree to indemnify and hold Fastsigns of Arvada harmless against any claims related to intellectual property infringement.

Quality Assurance:

While we maintain rigorous quality control processes, please be aware that minor adjustments and variations may occur in the final product. These are normal and do not constitute grounds for a reprint or refund.

By accepting and approving this artwork proof, you accept full responsibility for the content and layout as presented. Please respond with your approval or any corrections to proceed with production.
